

Correction: International Shipholding

29 April 2010

15:31

Associated Press Newswires

APRS

(c) 2010. The Associated Press. All Rights Reserved.

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) - In a story April 28 about International Shipholding Corp.'s first-quarter earnings, The Associated Press erroneously reported that the company was considering a sale.

As reported, another company offered but later withdrew a bid for International Shipholding. Chief Financial Officer Manuel G. Estrada says International Shipholding disbanded a special committee of the board formed to consider sale options and is not considering selling the company.